In June of 2017, HHM moved its corporate office to the Portland neighborhood when we purchased a renovated building that could also house our volunteers on the second floor. With this move, we have been able to start to build our urban immersion program in the western part of Louisville. We started to do the research and development necessary to put the program in place. Our volunteers began to assist those in the community alongside other organizations with home repairs and community impact projects. In 2017, HHM had 73 volunteers participate in community impact projects.
