Another Year in the Books

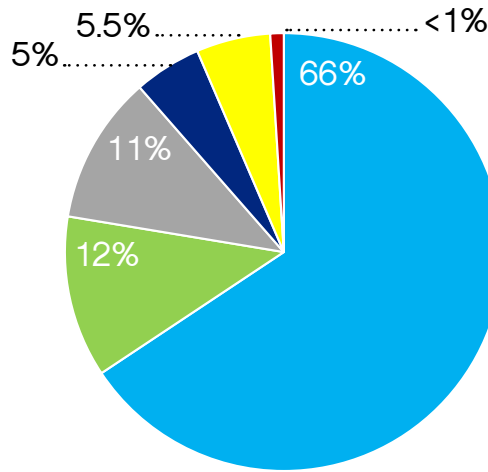

The year 2018 saw many big things for the Hand in Hand family. The Fowler Community Center was dedicated at the start of the year and the Louisville Urban Immersion Program experienced its first full year in operation.

The Auxier Center also received a new roof, thanks to the Honorable Order of the Kentucky Colonels, and 15 of our Pathway to Change students were first or second in their class.

We couldn't do any of this without your prayers and your support. Nearly 70 percent of our revenue comes from individuals who commit to and believe in our mission each year.

Thank you for your continued generosity and for being a part of the Hand in Hand family.
